

New Maths GCSE: N13 & R1 - Appropriate Units of Measurement

Name:.....

Date:.....

Which units would you use to measure the weight of a sandwich?

- A: metres
- B: kilograms
- C: grams
- D: hours

Correct Answer: A B C D

Explanation:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Which units would you use to measure the water in a kitchen sink?

- A: millilitres
- B: litres
- C: centimetres
- D: grams

Correct Answer: A B C D

Explanation:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Which units would you use to measure the carpet in a room?

- A: square metres
- B: kilometres
- C: minutes
- D: meters

Correct Answer: A B C D

Explanation:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Which units would you use to measure the fence around a garden?

- A: milligrams
- B: tonnes
- C: metres
- D: millimetres

Correct Answer: A B C D

Explanation:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Which units would you use to measure the height of the Eiffel tower?

- A: centimetres
- B: kilometres
- C: metres
- D: millimetres

Correct Answer: A B C D

Explanation:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Which units would you use to measure the weight of yourself?

- A: grams
- B: tonnes
- C: milligrams
- D: Kilograms

Correct Answer: A B C D

Explanation:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Which units would you use to measure the length of an eyelash?

- A: centimetres
- B: kilometres
- C: metres
- D: millimetres

Correct Answer: A B C D

Explanation:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Which units would you use to measure the weight of a lorry?

- A: grams
- B: tonnes
- C: milligrams
- D: Kilograms

Correct Answer: A B C D

Explanation:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

Which units would you use to measure the distance between London & Cardiff?

- A: centimetres
- B: kilometres
- C: metres
- D: millimetres

Correct Answer: A B C D

Explanation:

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....